

PROF. DR. TURAN EROL
ASELSAN INDEPENDENT MEMBER OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Mr. EROL received a bachelor's degree in Economics in 1985 and a master degree in 1989. He holds a Ph.D. degree in Economics from Tinbergen Institute/Erasmus University, the Netherlands. He served as an associate professor at Bařkent University in between the years 1997-2003 and he has made researches and lectured on the subjects of finance and economics. He was awarded by TOBB in the field of best research on Turkey's Economy in 2003. He has been a Professor at University of İstanbul Sabahattin Zaim, the Department of Business and Management Sciences Faculty.

Between the years 2003-2009 previously served as a member, second president and president of Capital Markets Board. Also he has served as the principal consultant of the Prime Minister between the years 2009-2018. He has also actively involved in private sector since 2010 as board member and consultant at leading Turkish companies like Turkish Airlines and its affiliates, ASELSAN, Tümosan and Ostim Yatırım.

During these duties, he had the opportunity to get to know and participate in the working, decision making and regulation processes of public and private sector institutions and financial and real sectors. He had the opportunity to organize and collaborate with organizations and national and international institutions, especially in the financial sector.

Prof. Dr. Turan EROL has served as a member of the Board of Directors during March 2016-March 2017 and has been elected as an Independent Member of Board of Directors at Ordinary General Assembly Meeting held on 19 June 2020.

Prof. Dr. Turan EROL is married and has two children.